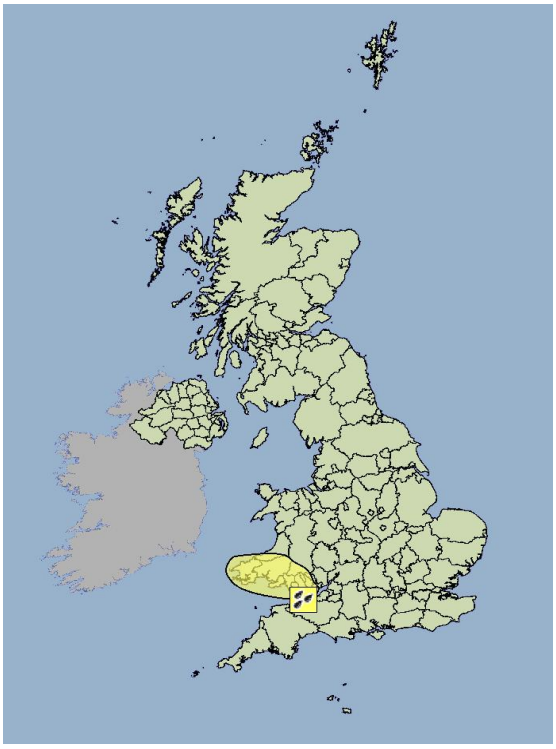
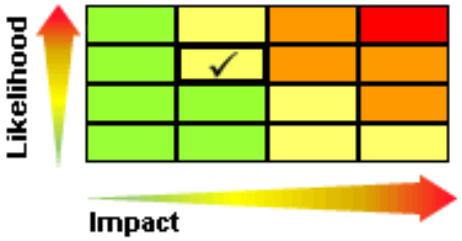
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
An area of low pressure will drift slowly eastwards through Saturday, bringing heavy showers and some more organised bands of showery rain. Locally we could see 20 to 30 mm of rain falling in 2-3 hours, and around 40 mm in less than 6 hours, bringing the potential for of surface water flooding.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Rain

Valid from 10:35 on Sat, 01st Oct 2016 until 18:00 on Sat, 01st Oct 2016

Showers, some heavy and slow-moving, will continue at times on Saturday, with a risk of hail, lightning and gusty winds. Showers will ease and then largely clear through the late afternoon and early evening. Please be aware of the possibility of localised surface water flooding and difficult driving conditions.

This is an update to the warning issued on Friday, to reduce the eastward extent of the area.
